SIX MINERS' STRIKE CASES ARE SETTLED

Defendants Plead Guilty and Agree to Payment of the Costs.

MURDER CASE IS ENDED

Verdict of Voluntary Manslaughter Agreed Upon in Trial of Letha Negro for Killing Former Dancing Associate; Other News of the Courts.

Six criminal cases growing out of the miners strike were settled in court in Uniontown today on filing of pleas of guilty and agreement of the defendants to pay the costs. The cases were those of Henry Thomas, malicious mischief, assault and battery and pointing firearms; Henry Thomas, felonious assault and pointing firearms; George Olecko; and John Strubal. Thomas R. and William Leine, attorneys.

After taking of testimony had been begun in the case of Mary Mike, charged with bribery, and Assad and Mary Mike, charged with violation of the Vomer Act, Judge J. H. Reppert ordered that the jury return a verdict of not guilty. Thomas Kelly, chief witness for the Commonwealth, had disappeared the court was told. The case was prosecuted by State Police at Masontown.

After a day of sensational testimony in which several witnesses for the Commonwealth had changed their stories from those given before the coroner's inquest, proceedings in the Frank C. Jones murder case, in hearing before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen came to a dramatic close yesterday afternoon when upon agreement of counsel, with the court concurring, the jury returned a verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter. The court continued the reading of testimony convicted on two counts of violating the liquor laws and one count each of keeping a disorderly house and a bawdy house. In the latter case the jury recommended the extreme mercy of the court. Two cases of beer were offered in evidence but taken from her house. State troopers visited the house on August 19 and October 23, last, and testified as to the inmates of the house at those times.

MILLION DOLLAR COAL TRANSFER AT EAST M'KEESPORT

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—H. A. Davis, operating a number of mines in the Pittsburgh bituminous coal district, and the W. H. Warner & Company interests of Cleveland took title yesterday to 100,000 acres of coal property in Veigatch, North Versailles and Elizabeth townships, extending from a point beyond Greencock

The vein underlying these properties is an extension of the new field. The report double-thick vein averages about seven feet in thickness and under tests is said to have equalled the product of the Pittsburgh vein. Two drilling machines are now in operation, one in Greenock and another on the Haler farm, where the vein skirts the Snake Hollow gas field.

Other operations and connections of Mr Davis are Washington Gas Coal Company of Washington; Countess Club Coal Company, Meadows, West Penn Coke Company, Mount Pleasant Charles of Gas Coal Company, Charleroi, and the Charles South Coal Company, Clarksburg. The Warner interests operate the Warner Youghiogheny Coal Company with mines at Trumbull, Clarksburg.

High School Opens League Season With Braddock Hi At That Place Tomorrow

Cokers, Primed for Clash; Promise of Great Season Is Ahead.

CITY LEAGUE TO MEET

Connellsville's High School basketball team will hold the final practice of the week before the Braddock game tomorrow evening at Braddock. The clash will mark the opening of the W. P. I. A. League season.

The Cokers showed up to rather good form in the pre-season games but just what the team can do against a stronger aggregation than those played is not known.

If Connellsville comes out ahead tomorrow evening and gets a good start in the scholastic league, the Cokers are likely to be a serious contender throughout. The team is one of great possibilities and it is only a matter of the boys on it feeling the responsibility they are bearing and buckling down to meet it.

LOCAL ORGANIZATION OF BASKETEERS WILL BE FORMED TOMORROW

A meeting of the Connellsville City Basketball League will be held tomorrow evening at the City Fraternity club rooms in North Pittsburgh street. Present indications are that the league will get under way at the meeting as all managers have promised to attend.

Ad Solson, star on the H. H. School team last season will be in charge of the Casey Club. Charles White having relinquished the position of manager. Solson says his ambition is to "lick" the Frats.

Charles Howard Yaw will be manager of the American Legion team and Pete Faksa will again handle the affairs of the Baltimore & Ohio team.

"Pep" Francis will be with the railroad outfit this season. James M. Driscoll has been re-elected manager of the Unity Frat quintet. Captain is already organized and Trotter is counting on coming into the league again.

There will be a practice game on the Capitan floor tonight between the girls of the Kobacker store and the Capitan girls.

The Five Griffith Brothers of Pittsburgh a team well-known throughout Western Pennsylvania is again in the field for games with first class teams and has written to this paper for information concerning teams bringing attractions here.

The opening of the league season. The games scheduled include Smithfield at Fairchance, Brownsville at Belle Vernon, Georges Township at Point Marion, German Township at Redstone, Township North Union Township at South Brownsville, Dunbar Township at South Union Township.

COKE LEAD OF 1932.

The Weekly Courier's Annual Review of the Coke Trade of the Connecticut Valley Region presents facts and figures relative to our industry during the past year which will no doubt be surprising to persons who have not kept in close touch with the course of events.The strike which harassed the trade for seven months out of the twelve, and caused serious and prolonged out-letting of production, attracted as much public attention that the progress of the region was making in the direction of a recovery from the Great Depression of 1921 was not noted except by those intimately associated with the trade. For this reason the information contained in the review will be gladly welcomed by the public generally as proof that the health of our industry has successfully passed through two successive years which have tested it more severely than any other period in the region's history.During 1921 the long-drawn out process of post war depression so federated the operation of coking plants that less than seven per cent of the ovens were making coke for several months during the summer, and for the remainder of the year activity never exceeded 25 per cent. When the statistics of the year were compiled it was shown that 1921 produced less coke than had been made in any one year since 1886 and the gross value of the product to the producers was the lowest since 1928. During the first three months of 1922 only partial recovery was made from the disastrous year preceding but better conditions were not far distant. Just as these promises gave indications of being realized the coal strike cast its "withering blight" over industry, and the sympathy walkout of the coke workers extinguished the fires in more than half the ovens in the region.Throughout the summer the region operated from 15 to 20 per cent of its capacity under all the handicaps, hindrances and discouragements which accompany conflicts between employers and employees, but without losing any of the gains that were made from week to week and never at any time dropping to the low level of production during the corresponding weeks of 1921. Slowly and steady-ly the volume of production increased until late in October it surpassed the best week of the year which had been recorded coincident with the outset of the strike. During the last two months of the year regional tonnage grew constantly until the weekly average of 1922 was exceeded in December and the year closed with the trade in a stronger position, and with prices higher, than for two years past.The output of the year was 5,675-000 tons, an increase of 2,102,580 tons or 58.8 per cent, and the gross value of the coke shipped to market reached $40,576,250, a gain of $28,038,511, or 173 per cent, over 1921.The year thus became a conspicuous one in the history of the region.
It was one of those in which the annual increase in value of product alone exceeded $40,000,000 and one in which the average price was above $5.00 per ton. The output was less than 50 per cent of the annual average for the past 12 years, and only 26 per cent of that of 1916, the banner year in production, but the significance of the year's achievements does not lie wholly in the enlarged output or its enhanced value.The fact that the region proved its vitality and powers of endurance and demonstrated its ability to come back after having undergone the gruelling of an unparalleled depression followed so quickly by a stubborn strike, is the outstanding feature of the most eventful period in the region's history. Well may the operators feel encouraged to face the new year with courage, confidence and hope that, no matter if they have lost supremacy in the matter of producing the largest part of metallurgical fuel, which position they sustained until the extraordinary expansion of the by-product even in 1929 the coking industry is still an important factor in such production.THE PARTY WHO TOOK A VIOLENt out of my office in Patterson Avenue is known if same is not returned at

MYSTERY IN SALESMAN'S SAMPLE CASE

Moonslime Prompts Him Deposit It on Mount Pleasant Street.

BOMB PLOT SUSPECTED

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, Jan. 4.—A salesman's case occasioned a lot of excitement Tuesday afternoon when a man who walked up Washington street about 2:30, "furtively" glancing about, dropped the case on the sidewalk and went on. When he had not returned for the case at 5:30 o'clock, in the evening neighbors who had seen him and the case became uneasy and began to suspect it contained bombs, moonshine and many other things. Finally Constable Harvey Long took charge of the case and forced the lock, only to find that all it contained was a lot of copies of candy. The man who left the case evidently had been sampling the town's wet goods, judged by his condition when he called on Burgess Overholt and asked if his case was there. The man said he thought that it had only been a few minutes since he left his case when in reality it had been a day and night.

I. O. O. F. Club Entertained.
On Tuesday evening the members of Julia Reusch Lodge entertained at the Odd Fellows rooms for the members of the Odd Fellows Club. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Union Prayer Service.
Last evening the union prayer services was held at the Church of God, with Rev. J. D. Good, pastor of the United Brethren Church, preaching.
This evening the meeting will be held in the Re-Union Presbyterian Church with Rev. R. S. Hardin in charge.

Large Certificate Sale.
Postmaster C. A. Graul reports that the sale of Treasury Savings Certificates through the local postoffice totalled more than $40,000 during the month of December.

Society Entertained.
The Misses Springer of Hitchman street on Monday evening entertained the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church at a business and social meeting.

Select Your Oil Field When Buying Oil

The earth yields, in some places, gold of greater purity than in others. So do the oil pools beneath Pennsylvania supply a better grade oil for auto and tractor lubricants. Years ago oil was all high test because it was "All Pennsylvania." Demand grew greater than the Pennsylvania supply and now "All Pennsylvania" practically means "Waverly." Better lubrication is greater all round economy. It is obtained in motor, transmission, differential and elsewhere by using this oil and grease of recognized superiority—"All Pennsylvania." Your dealer can supply you if you insist.

WHO ADVERTISE!

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

"JUST TONY," which opened today at this theatre for a three day performance, presents Tom Mix in the stellar role. "Just Tony," which is from the story, "Alcatraz," the widely read novel by Brand, features the remarkable talents of "Tony," the train-borne horse which has been Mix's companion in each of his long series of western screen productions. From the first flash to the final flicker, Mix and "Tony" romp carefree through the picture, obvious of the thousand questions that beset their minds in the play. Mix, as "Red," forges a wandering cowboy, becomes the only friend that "Tony," the wild desert mustang can boast of. "Tony's" animosity and rancorous sentiment of the treatment accorded him by man has led him into many misadventures. It is through the eyes of "Red" that "Tony" depicts his destructive career and returns to his former docile habits. Director Reynolds has displayed unusual ability with this unique animal whose readiness to comprehend the exacting duties which are demanded of him are astounding. The cast, in addition to "Tony" and "Tom," contains the names of such brilliant character actors as Claire Adams, J. P. Lockney, Duke Lee, Frank Campeau and Walt Robins. Aside from its stirring incidents and absorbing detail, the story contains a unusual scenic background that adds charm to the narrative.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE LOADED DOOR," from an original story by Ralph Cummings, provides splendid entertainment today and tomorrow at this theatre. The story is of a band of smugglers trafficking in whiskey and narcotics across the Mexican border, hampered by none save a dinky county sheriff who is on equal to the task. Playing the leading role opposite Gibson is Gertrude Olmstead, winner of a national beauty contest in Chicago, and one of the most popular of film's "baby stars." Others who have principal supporting roles are Billie Ryno, Eddie Sutherland, Noble Johnson, Joseph Harris, Charles Newton, Victor Fotel, Charles A. Smiley and C. L. Sherwood. Harry A. Pollard who directed "The Loaded Door," is well-known for his many successes as a director. Born and raised in the cattle country in the environment of cow ponies and bustles, Pollard possesses an unshakable knowledge of western life along with a capacity for depicting it on the screen. "The Loaded Door" gives Gibson plenty of chance to fight and frolic through the whole five reels of thrills and humor. In this latest of his Universal starring vehicles, Gibson magnificently strengthens his reputation for being the finest horseman on the screen. Friday and Saturday "Gun-Shy" featuring Franklin Farnum, will be shown.

THE ORPHEUM.

ductions filmed in many months. The production leaves nothing to be desired. We see Reuben's wandering among the strange people and gain a view of the Old Homestead in a scene that is certainly convincing. It is a work of merit which deserves every success because it is clean. The picture enthralled the large audience yesterday afternoon and last night. A big storm that wrecks the village and almost ruins every house but the old homestead, which stands like the house built upon the rock, debut of all earthly manifestations, is one of the big features of this picture. The story seems to have lost none of its old time attractiveness. The cast is virtually all-star; it is the sort of a cast that is gotten together for a big stage revival in the metropolis. Theodore Roberts makes a wonderful character actor of Uncle Josh. Other members of the cast are: George Fawcett as Eph Holbrook; T. Roy Barnes as Happy Jack; Fritz Ridgeway as Ann; Harrison Ford as Reuben; Ethel Wales as Matilda; Kathleen O'Connor as Rose; and James Mason as Len. Thursday and Friday Mary Miles Minter will be seen in "South of Sava."
